COUNTRY HOUSE

your wedding

welcome to the start of forever

Every second of your wedding day is precious, from the moment you arrive to your final farewells.

Roundthorn Country House becomes your home the moment you step over the threshold. With panoramic views of the Eden Valley and Lakeland Fells, it is a beautiful location and a stunning setting for your special day. As you sweep up the driveway towards the grand façade of this grade II listed Georgian gem, you can truly sit back and enjoy, knowing that every little detail will be taken care of.

The overall effect here is one of tranquility and style with a sprinkle of luxury. The house and our team are professional and experienced, yet fun and creative – ready with ideas if you need them.

Exclusive use of the house and gardens, means each couple can really indulge and let their surroundings soak up their personality. With extensive grounds we can even play host to a marquee, whether it be for drinks on the lawn or for the full day. The possibilities are endless…

Ceremonies

The I do's

There's nothing quite like saying 'I do' with a gentle breeze in your hair and the birds cheering you on, or gazing out of the picture windows onto the views of the Lakeland Fells and Eden Valley while you're cosy inside.

Here at Roundthorn you make the decisions; all four of our event spaces are licensed for civil ceremonies, not excluding the garden gazebo or even our field for a truly rural setting. Whether it be a smaller, more intimate affair, or a large celebration you can enjoy your civil ceremony with your favourite people.

If a civil ceremony isn't for you and your vows take place at church, we will be here ready to welcome you with a glass of fizz and a smile.

You can then enjoy drinks on the lawn or in the cosy lounges, with the option to include canapés, before enjoying a mouth watering wedding breakfast.

the space

the Cumbrian Suite

Spacious, modern, a blank canvas for you to transform – that would be our Cumbrian Suite. The heart of the house, where most of the excitement happens!

Our Cumbrian Suite is the largest space within Roundthorn Country House, so this is most likely where you'll tiptoe down the aisle if you opt for an indoor ceremony. It also doubles up for your Wedding Breakfast, then re-invents itself once more for your Evening Reception – we like to say our very own shape shifter.

Seating up to 150 guests through the day, with a further 50 able to join in the evening we have the right space for all your party antics.

wedding breakfast

mouth-watering moments

If you aren't familiar with the arguably confusing phrase 'Wedding Breakfast', it describes your first meal as a married couple. Using your delicately selected dishes, we'll create a glorious wedding menu.

Our Wedding Breakfast dishes give you the freedom to create your very own tailored menu, suited exactly to you. Whether you fancy a formal 4 course feast, or a more relaxed style, grazing your way through the afternoon with one of our luxurious platters, we have a little bit of something for everyone.

don't forget the drinks

From signature cocktails, to bubbles on the lawn, choose your drinks to compliment your chosen menu.

evening reception

dance through the night

The formalities of the day are complete, all the precious photos have been captured, it's time to let your hair down and enjoy the rest of the evening. Our evening buffet choices provide enough to keep you dancing into the early hours, but not too much that everyone is tucking themselves into bed full and exhausted. So kick off your heels, loosen your tie and light up the dancefloor!

Whether you choose our resident DJ to host your night, or a musician to bring the party, we can help with all of the arrangements.

dream the night away

All 10 of our individually styled, luxury bedrooms are a place where you can relax, unwind, and reflect on the memories made on the first day of your marriage. Each one is unique and full of character, meaning you pick the perfect space for you, creating your personal, complimentary bridal suite. Your guests will also enjoy generously discounted accommodation rates, followed by breakfast, reminiscing the memories made of the previous day.

getting ready

It wouldn't be your wedding day without a morning pamper from hair and makeup artists, a visit from your florist delivering your long-awaited bouquets, or a groomsmen fixing his tie before ushering guests down the aisle to their seats. We understand where you get ready sets the mood for the day, that's why our designated getting ready room is available if you wish to make the most of it.

Roundthorn's pre-wedding experience

We make the phrase 'try before you buy' a little more sophisticated. Our designated wedding experience nights give you the opportunity to indulge in snippets of what your wedding day could be.

Enjoy a selection of canapés on arrival, followed by a mouth watering four course banquet chosen by our chefs. Chat to our enthusiastic wedding coordinators about your ideas while sipping on a prosecco, and make yourself at home soaking up all Roundthorn has to offer as your wedding venue.

next steps

We understand that planning a wedding could be a daunting task, especially when you often haven't done it before! That is why we are here to help each step of the way. If you decide Roundthorn Country House is the perfect place for you, congratulations, we are already excited to help you plan your perfect day!

We will hold your preferred date for 21 days. Within that time we issue you with a contract pack which outlines the finer details of your day. In order to fully secure your chosen date, your signed contract must be returned along with a deposit of £1000. Final payment isn't due until 10 days before your big day, so sit back and enjoy planning the fun and pretty details of your day!
